Paola Polinori
vocals

Is a distinguished soprano with a professional trajectory in the world of opera, serving as a member of the Theater Choir of the emblematic Teatro Colón and completing the final year of the Lyric Singing Career at the Superior Institute of Arts of the same theater.

Under the guidance of eminent masters such as María Rosa Farre, Carlos Duarte, and Susana Frangi, as well as with master classes from international figures like Maria Bengtsson and Barbara Frittoli, Paola has constantly perfected her vocal artistry.

Her debut as a soloist in 2014, interpreting W.A. Mozart's Coronation Mass in C Major alongside the Provincial Symphony Orchestra of Bahía Blanca, marked the beginning of a promising career.

She has excelled in opera roles such as Armide in the co-production of the Teatro Colón and the Centre de Musique Baroque de Versailles, Arminda in Mozart's "La Finta Giardiniera", Condessa in "The Marriage of Figaro", Clorinda in Rossini's "La Cenerentola", among others.

Her versatility and talent have been showcased in recitals in the iconic Golden Hall of Teatro Colón and other prestigious venues, establishing her as a highly versatile and professional opera singer.

The Qatar Philharmonic Brass Ensemble

Founded in 2008 alongside the Qatar Philharmonic Orchestra, the Qatar Philharmonic Brass ensemble brings a vibrant energy to the Qatari music scene. This dynamic group, led by a roster of esteemed guest conductors including Bob Ross, Walter Hilgers, and Christopher Dicken, has captivated audiences across the nation.

Their repertoire is anything but ordinary. From the grandeur of early Baroque pieces to the infectious energy of pop classics, the Qatar Philharmonic Brass takes audiences on a captivating musical journey. Their innovative spirit extends beyond traditional arrangements, as they perform original compositions by ensemble members, infusing their programs with a touch of Qatari flair.

The Qatar Philharmonic Brass transcends the traditional concert hall, bringing classical music to the heart of the community. More than just performers, they are dedicated to making classical music accessible to all. Their performances span a wide range of venues, from prestigious opera houses and luxurious destinations like The Pearl to the bustling souq and even a surprise flashmob concert at Hamad International Airport. This commitment to breaking down barriers and showcasing the entertaining side of classical music has undoubtedly inspired a new generation of music lovers in Qatar.
